The Ericka James Show: Life on Purpose

If most people knew and fulfilled their life purposes the world would be made up of whole, healthy, loving, and confident people who are passionate about building lives, businesses and organizations of meaning and impact.

This is a show for those who know they were created for more. They are the truth-seekers, originators, creators, innovators, founders, builders, idealists, and influencers. The show highlights the stories behind the extraordinary companies and organizations they are building to fulfill their purpose.

Ericka has spent the last 32 years guiding people and organizations through transformation and she is bringing her gifts to the world in a new way.

This vision is MUCH larger than what she can do on her own and she would love you to be a part of it.

She is going after the target audience that was left behind when The Oprah Winfrey Show went off the air in 2011. No one has stepped into be able to fully capture this 15 – 20 million-viewers-per-day audience and the timing is ripe for a new personality with depth and dimension to arrive on the scene.

But, in a new way that has never been done before.

About the Show

92% of people are not clear about their life's purpose or they are not achieving it. This show aims to drastically transform that statistic and guide people to understand what they were created to do and how to do it.

The Show Format & Topics

This is not a typical talk show format that relies solely on the guests to boost show ratings. Although the show will have guests, the focus on the show is Ericka's wisdom, humor, teachings, insights and the prophetic.

It is a 28:30-minute show with three segments that consist of:

- 1 - Ericka sharing statistics, success principles, stories, and insights.
- 2 – Ericka's three Power Steps and guest interviews
- 3 - A live or recorded prophetic session with Ericka.

The Show's System of Transformation

The show will be part of a larger system of transformation that gives viewers access to free resources, courses, Life on Purpose Groups, live and virtual events, books and workbooks, merchandise and membership groups.
